Career Objective :

My name is Kazi Rahamatullah, and I presently work at StaticMania as a software developer engineer. The University of Asia Pacific(UAP) is where I earned my Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science and Engineering(CSE). The creation of new items that excite me greatly interests me.

I'm a passionate Full-Stack web developer(MERN) and build websites using HTML, CSS, Javascript, React.js, Next.js, Tailwind, and Styled Components. I have also a good grasp of Node and NoSQL(MongoDB). I also build cross-platform mobile apps with ReactNative.

I also have knowledge of flutter development and have experience in building android and IOS applications. I also have the live app published on Google Play Store.

As a professional, I enjoy keeping up with the most recent trends and enjoy discovering new technology. Every line of code I produce should be more understandable, accessible, and modular.

Academic Background :

Degree: BSC in CSE (Computer Science Engineering)

University Name: University of Asia Pacific
